LABARRAQUES QUINIUM WINE. LABARRAQUE'S QUINTUM WINE

We have, through the constant uss, for some time past, of the QUINII M WINE, seen truly marvellous effects produced by it. We have therefore no hesitation in saying that Quinium is, in our opinion, the most efficacions and the most active tonic hitherto known. DR. WAHN, Chief Physicianat the Cherchell Hospital. Sovemy fevore treated with LABARRA-QUE'S QUINIUM WINE were all removed with the third dose. * Not one single person who made use of it as a preventive contracted any fever during his residence in a faver country. 'DR. HUDBLET,

Chief Physician of the Hospitals. QUINIUM WINE is not therefore merely a preventivo and a febrifuge; it is also one of the best tonics that can be employed to wreatle with constitutional debility. LABARRAQUE'N QUINTUM is very officacious in the cure of intermittent fevers and reconstitution of the animal economy. It is an excellent remody. DR. BOUCHARDAT, · Professor at the Faculté de Medicine.

According to the complainant's story, he was stopped on the wharf ou leaving the launchafter its arrival from the Chinese side of the water and was about to he searched by the two defendants when he remonstrated and asked to be taken to the Po'ice Station, upon which the defendants assaulted him by hitting him several times with their fists. Another man employed on board the launch said he was also assaulted on trying to assist the complainant. The defendants told quits another story, stating that they wished the complainant to go to the Police Station to be searched and that he resisted and called upon his fokis to assault them and struck one of thom on the chest, No marks of blows were shown on either side. Mr Spooner, chief excise officer, said they were constantly finding opium being brought across in the launches from Kowoon City and the defendants were stationed on the wharf to search for opium. Their orders were that if a person was willing to be searched on the wharf they might search him there; otherwise, if there was reason to believe the person had opium in his posses. sion, and refused to be searched there, be was to be taken to the Police Station. Sometimes a man preferred to go to the Opium Farmer's place to be searched, in which case he would be taken there.
